

- Professional Air Medical Pilots Credo -

Professional Air Medical Pilots will always focus on safety first; committing themselves to open communications and effective air medical resource management for the enhancement of safety on the ground and in the air.

Professional Air Medical Pilots will commit themselves to developing teamwork through continuous improvement and safety systems that provide dynamic just culture oriented solutions.

Professional Air Medical Pilots will strive to share their knowledge and experience with others; including fellow pilots with an interest in the air medical industry.

Professional Air Medical Pilots will always operate their aircraft in a manner that not only ensures safety, but instills the respect and trust of his or her medical crew, peer pilots and the public at large.

Professional Air Medical Pilots will not let external pressures or demands in their personal lives affect their aeronautical decision making.

Professional Air Medical Pilots will strive to improve their technical expertise through training and the constant pursuit of knowledge.

Professional Air Medical Pilots will participate in regulatory and non-regulatory issues that make a positive impact on aviation safety in the air medical Industry; promoting an industry that exceeds the established standards whenever and wherever possible.

Professional Air Medical Pilots will not let a medical emergency turn into an aviation emergency.

Professional Air Medical Pilots will prepare themselves mentally and physically to report for assigned duties in a manner that promotes leadership, safety, and professionalism.

Professional Air Medical Pilots will ensure their behavior on the ground and in the air reflects positively on their profession in the eyes of their colleagues and of the public.